

1. The small business centres offer practical resources, from step-by-step info on setting up your business to sample business plans to a range of business-related articles and books in our resource libraries. This text is bold!
2. The centres also offer free one-on-one consultations with business advisors who can review your business plan and make recommendations to improve it. This text is using italic font.